

Territorial Topics

FARMINGTON.

From the Times-Advertiser.

K. F. Taylor has taken the Franklin school for a six month term.

Farmington has the best race track to the southwest and we will hang on some good purses this year.

Farmington's fair will surpass all past events of this kind in the valleys.

It will be the one great event of San Juan county this year.

C. W. Burch of Port Gibson, Texas,

accompanied by his family were looking over our country, with a view of returning and locating here when the railroad comes.

RATON.

From the Reporter.

Attorney E. C. Abbott of Santa Fe,

was a Raton visitor this week.

Attorney T. Hill is having a handsome cottage erected on South

Fourth street.

Ray Eugene is having a new residence built on South Fourth street, U. S. Stevens is doing the work.

Henry Jones and family returned

Tuesday from a three weeks visit to Denver and other Colorado points.

Mrs. Moore, grand organizer of the Ladies Auxiliary to the O. R. C., is here on an official visit to the local lodge.

Harry Thacker has accepted a position with the Postal Telegraph Co.,

with headquarters at this place, vice

J. D. Green of Las Vegas, resigned.

James Keating, who suffered the loss of his wife and child in the Eden disaster and who visited with relatives in Raton since that time left yesterday for his home in Pueblo.

LAS CRUCES.

From the Citizen.

Mrs. A. L. Sampson left for St.

Louis Monday.

Las Cruces was visited yesterday

by a glorious good shower.

Mrs. E. A. Rindell left last Saturday

on a business trip to Mexico.

Mrs. Gee Frenzer and Miss Louis

Friend contemplate a trip to St. Louis.

Manuel Chaves, the murderer of Ben Lewis, has so far managed to avoid the officers.

Judge Frank W. Parker is visiting relatives at his old home in Michigan

this week.

Hugo Goldenberg, once a merchant

in Las Cruces, who was in sheep

raising at Tuscarawas several years ago, sold his flock this week for $25,000.

Sheriff J. R. Lacerio is back from his trip to Arizona and brought with him Augustin Salido, who is charged with assault and intent to kill.

Preston Luther Foster of the Agricultural college and Hon. John May have been appointed vice presidents of the Twenty-fourth Annual Territorial Fair, which takes place in October at Albuquerque.

Miss Anna S. Walker, last year a teacher in the Presbyterian Mission school, was last week appointed principal of the Hillsboro public school

by the school board over there.

The Lorenzo Academy will open school as usual on the first Monday of September. The class rooms have been newly furnished, painted, supplied with charts, etc. A number of applications have been received and a prosperous year is anticipated.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

Robert Garrett, Jr., will depart Friday for Hawaii, where he will resume

his studies in the New Mexico Military Institute.

Secondino Romero, clerk of the Fourth Judicial district court, returned to his home in Las Vegas, after a

a brief stay here on business.

John Brown, of Baltimore, Maryland, has accepted a position as meat cutter with E. Deaconess, who recently purchased the meat market of

George Anton on lower San Francisco street.

Miss Bertha Sheffler of Central

City, Colorado, has arrived in the Capital City preparatory to taking a position as the teacher in the first and second grades of the public school in the third ward.

Noyce Weitner will leave within a

a few days for Roswell to resume studies in the New Mexico Military Institute in that town. He will be accompanied by a son of Dr. Martin of Taos, Masons, Dryer of Taos and Pollock of Espanola will return to the school early during the coming week.

E. Delgado, who has been suffering with blood-poisoning in his right hand,

the result of scratching the member in a home, is able to be about. The hand is yet very sore, but the swelling

is gradually going down.

William Greenfield, who came here

from Las Truchas to accept employment with Levi A. Hughes at the Yellow

Pine saw mill north of the city, left this forenoon over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad for Brady's switch from which place he will go to his home. Mr. Greenfield was taken several days ago and on this account was obliged to resign his position.

He was accompanied by Teodora

Gomes, who is looking after his well-being.

Mrs. W. C. Stevenson, of Washington, D. C., who holds an important position with the Ethnological division of the Smithsonian Institution, is a guest at the Palace. Mrs. Stevenson who has been connected with the Smithsonian for many years, is an authority on ethnology and archaeology. She has just spent several months with the Zuni and Moquis

studying the customs of these Indians and gathering objects of historical and archaeological value. She and her late husband, who was also connected with that institution, visited Santa Fe for several months in 1883 and 84.

Recovering from Operation—The many friends of Mrs. C. W. Astier of Santa Fe will be pleased to learn that she has successfully undergone a serious operation and is on the road to recovery. It is hoped that she will have an uncomplicated recovery, she having recently suffered considerably from the effect leading up to the operation. Dr. G. H. Astier and Dr. Mason performed the operation. Dr. Astier, who has been visiting with his brothers, will leave for St. Louis and his home in a few days.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

Miss Du Val, who formerly conducted a private school here has gone to San Antonio, Texas, and the school will hereafter be conducted by Mrs. Hersey.

A farewell reception is to be given this evening by the women of St. John's Methodist Episcopal church for Rev. W. A. Cooper, who leaves soon to take up a new charge in Okla.

Miss Edna Mawarin, of Albuquerque, was this morning a guest of Miss Anna Berger, while en route to Verde, where she will be employed as an instructor in the public schools. She left at 9 o'clock for her destination.

Mrs. Moore, grand organizer of the Ladies Auxiliary to the O. R. C., is here on an official visit to the local lodge.

Harry Thacker has accepted a position with the Postal Telegraph Co., with headquarters at this place, vice J. D. Green of Las Vegas, resigned.

James Keating, who suffered the loss of his wife and child in the Eden disaster and who visited with relatives in Raton since that time left yesterday for his home in Pueblo.

LAS CRUCES.

From the Citizen.

Mrs. A. L. Sampson left for St.

Louis Monday.

Las Cruces was visited yesterday by a glorious good shower.

Mrs. E. A. Rindell left last Saturday on a business trip to Mexico.

Mrs. Gee Frenzer and Miss Louis Friend contemplate a trip to St. Louis.

Manuel Chaves, the murderer of Ben Lewis, has so far managed to avoid the officers.

Judge Frank W. Parker is visiting relatives at his old home in Michigan this week.

Hugo Goldenberg, once a merchant in Las Cruces, who was in sheep raising at Tuscarawas several years ago, sold his flock this week for $25,000.

Sheriff J. R. Lacerio is back from his trip to Arizona and brought with him Augustin Salido, who is charged with assault and intent to kill.

Preston Luther Foster of the Agricultural college and Hon. John May have been appointed vice presidents of the Twenty-fourth Annual Territorial Fair, which takes place in October at Albuquerque.

Miss Anna S. Walker, last year a teacher in the Presbyterian Mission school, was last week appointed principal of the Hillsboro public school by the school board over there.

The Lorenzo Academy will open school as usual on the first Monday of September. The class rooms have been newly furnished, painted, supplied with charts, etc. A number of applications have been received and a prosperous year is anticipated.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

Robert Garrett, Jr., will depart Friday for Hawaii, where he will resume his studies in the New Mexico Military Institute.

Secondino Romero, clerk of the Fourth Judicial district court, returned to his home in Las Vegas, after a brief stay here on business.

John Brown, of Baltimore, Maryland, has accepted a position as meat cutter with E. Deaconess, who recently purchased the meat market of George Anton on lower San Francisco street.

Miss Bertha Sheffler of Central City, Colorado, has arrived in the Capital City prepar